

Essential Question: When are decisions hard to make?

Unit 4 Week 3

Story

The Case of the Magic Marker Mischief Maker

Genre

Drama

Story

"Dramatic Decisions: Theater Through the Ages"

Genre

Expository Text

Story

"Treasure in the Attic"

Genre

Drama

Comprehension Strategy

summarize

Comprehension Skill

theme

Vocabulary Strategy

homophones

Writing Traits

ideas-develop characters

Grammar

uses of possessive pronouns

Other Skills

fluency: expression

Genre

Drama

SPELLING/ PHONICS

prefixes and suffixes

disgraceful unsuccessful
outlandish
outsider
incorrectly
enjoyment disappointment
discouragement
enforcement
repayment
enclosure
unselfish unhappiness
disapproval
unfairness reminder
designer
departure delightful
unevenly

Vocabulary

benefactor- a kind person who gives money or services empathy- the act of experiencing or being sensitive to the feelings, thoughts, or attitudes of another endeavor- a serious effort or attempt entail- to cause or involve by necessity or as a consequence extensive- far-reaching, thorough, comprehensive; large, broad indecision- the ability to make up one's mind, determine, or decide multitude- a great number of people or things; a crowd tentatively- in an uncertain, unsure manner; not confidently or decisively